RecoWear clothing is reusable and made of high-quality cotton. Available in variety of sizes.

Using newest technological solutions, we have created 2 collections of innovative, safe and durable products. Basic one and one enhanced with silver ions.

RecoWear is a synonym of reliable protection that fulfills yours and your pet's needs. Our clothing isolates and secures from licking wounds, scratching and infection. Care and protection are extremely important during healing process.

As is public knowledge, humidity and elevated temperature create perfect environment for microorganisms to grow. Those parts of clothing that stay in constant contact with pet's skin and hair can be inhabited by bacteria nad fungi. That is why we designed collection enhanced with silver ions, to give your pet an extra protection!
